

Shawn P. Hughes, JD

Senior Vice President, Business Development and Integration Officer Broadway Bank

Shawn Hughes is the Senior Vice President, Business Development and Integration Officer for Broadway Bank. He joined Broadway Bank in 2014 after having spent 20 years practicing law in the areas of Probate, Estates and Guardianship. His experience in banking has allowed him to gain insights and knowledge across our Wealth Management, Private Banking, Business Banking and Retail Banking divisions. Mr. Hughes uses his expertise in these areas to provide clients with comprehensive guidance and customized solutions for lending, depository and investments.

He holds a BBA in Marketing from Texas Christian University and a Doctor of Jurisprudence from St. Mary's University School of Law.

Mr. Hughes is an active member of our community and has held numerous organizational and civic positions including being a member of Leadership San Antonio Class 44, Chair of the Elder Law Section of the San Antonio Bar Association, past Co-Chair of the Texas Guardianship Advisory Board and a leader for Scouts BSA. He enjoys serving as a mentor to young professionals, teaching literacy and wellness.

His volunteer work has led him all over the world from Central Asia to Latin America to prison cells. One of his passions is working in Guatemala City with individuals who make their living by scavenging through the city's garbage dump. This work includes addressing housing and food insecurity issues, access to healthcare, education, micro-lending and personal wellness. Mr. Hughes and his family also spend a lot of time with Afghan refugees in San Antonio and count many of these newer residents to be close friends.
